New Beginnings always available for the asking

Beloved Friends- As I sit in an airport in Florida waiting to come home to you I am thinking about in-between times- endings and beginnings. Earlier this morning I preached at the closing worship service at this week's CREDO conference- a time for Episcopal clergy to come together for education, reflection, rest and renewal. Today [...]

Pop-Up Dinners Round #2- Seeking Hosts

Our first round of Trinity pop-up dinners in September has now been successfully completed! From fancy, to casual, with locations across the city there was a place for all at the table. We are now looking for hosts for round two in November.

Who can host this round? Anyone! If you hosted before you are not obliged to host again but absolutely may do so.

Here are a few comments from those who've participated:

"I believe I got to know some individuals better and at a deeper level than I ever would in passing on a Sunday morning at church."

"It was a delight for me as a host, low stress, easy conversation."

"So much fun to just gather for a meal!"

Contact Kim Henkel with any questions or to get involved:
kimberlyhenkel@hotmail.com / 313-300-3918.

If you would like to host please contact Kim by Sunday October 14th.

November Pop-Up Dinner signups will be posted the third week in October. We look forward to a renewed time of fellowship and fun!

Next To New Re-Opening

Next to New re-opened Monday October 1st with a volunteer staff lead by Mary Wabeke as we continue to search for a new manager. We installed a new point of sale machine which will make our accounting easier and will allow us to take credit cards with a micro-chip. We will continue our previous regular hours of Monday and Thursday 9:30-3:00pm and welcome volunteer help. Please contact Mary Wabeke to volunteer. Next to New always welcomes your donations. Bins are located on the main floor by the elevator and near the door to the parking garage. We thank all who continue to support this vital ministry at Trinity.

FORMATION

11:15am Sunday Formation Schedule

October 7th & 14th -

Open Table Initiative Introduction led by Roberta Durham(Living Room)

The poet Robert Frost said home was the place where, "when you have to go there, they have to take you in." But what if you have nowhere to go? In Lucas County, every year up to 30 foster children "age out" by turning 18. As foster children, they never safely reunited with family, nobody adopted them, and now -- happy birthday! -- they're legal adults, totally on their own. Trinity will partner with The Open Table, a national initiative that organizes small groups to create transformational relationships with people in need. Interested in learning how you could help create community for Lucas County's former foster children? Come to My Brother's Place October 7 & 14 to learn more!

October 7th & 14th -

Worship helper orientation. Lisa will meet and discuss worship; this will be for those who are currently leading worship as well as for those who have wanted to get more involved or are just curious about why we do what we do. Please gather in the chancel area after service.

All are welcome to come to either or both over the course of both Sundays

Looking ahead:

October 21 & 28, & November 4 -

Introduction to the Episcopal Church led by Lisa Tucker-Gray

We will gather for 3 Sundays in a row for a short introduction to our history, polity, worship and spirituality. Part of making disciples begins with our own learning and growing as disciples located in a particularly rich and beautiful liturgical tradition. Plan on joining us for all three sessions each offering a different aspect of what it means to be Episcopalian.

Meet Katelynn: Jobst High School Scholar Program

Katelynn Engel is a senior at Waite High School. She participates in Waite High School's leading choral ensemble, Show Choir and also is delighted to be a part of Trinity's High School Program. In addition to being active in her musical ensembles and extra curricular activities, Katelynn works at Texas Roadhouse. In spare time, Katelynn enjoys singing, doing makeup and spending time with her loved ones.

After high school, Katelynn plans on attending the University of Toledo and becoming a Nurse Practitioner. She also plans to minor in Music Therapy while obtaining her bachelor's degree in Nursing.

Meet Grace: Jobst Choral Scholar Program

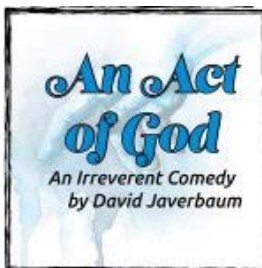

Grace is a soprano based out of Bowling Green Ohio. She studied voice performance with a minor in theatre at Bowling Green State University under the tutelage of tenor Christopher Scholl. While pursuing her degree at BGSU she was privileged to sing such roles as: Rosalinda; Die Fledermaus, Belinda; Dido and Aeneas, Yum Yum; The Mikado, Barbarina; Le Nozze Di Figaro, and Celia; Iolanthe.

In addition to her stage roles Grace sang as the soprano soloist for Mozart's Requiem and Beethoven's Mass in C. Grace appears regularly in the Toledo opera chorus and churches around the area. A lover of many styles of singing, Grace recently appeared as Woman 1 in Songs for a New World with PMT. She is thrilled to be working at Trinity where she can make a diverse array of music with such talented musicians in a wonderfully welcoming and warm environment.

MUSIC & THE ARTS

Meet Eduardo: Jobst High School Scholar Program

Eduardo Pizana has been a baritone in the Canterbury Choir for three years. He is a senior at Waite High School where he participates in Show Choir. He enjoys drawing, playing piano and, of course, singing. He hopes to study architecture and music education at UT starting next fall. He works as a busser at Magdalena's in Temperance, so stop in and say Hi almost any evening (except Thursdays when he's at choir rehearsal).

Meet David: Jobst Choral Scholar Program

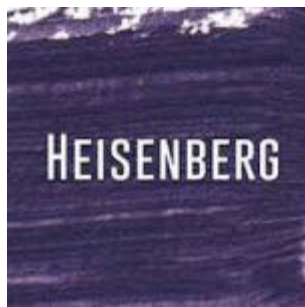

David Breen spent early childhood in southern Illinois and moved to Ohio after second grade. He lived in Akron until leaving to attend Case Western for college and eventually transferring to Bowling Green State University. At BGSU, David studied with Doug Wayland for two months before he passed. He studied with Lance Ashmore for the rest of his time there. David has been singing barbershop for twelve years, competing in the barbershop international contests during this time. Currently he is actively singing in two barbershop quartets, two barbershop choruses, Clarence Smith's community choir, Vocado, and the Lancaster Chorale.
