MESSAGE FROM LISA

How Then Shall We Live?

Beloved Friends-
Happy New Year! I pray as we say goodbye to 2018 and welcome 2019, we do

so able to let go of all that was with gentleness and look forward to all that is yet to be with hope-filled expectation. This year, rather than focus on New Year's resolutions, I am wondering about

February 1-2, 2019 Kalahari Convention Center

Registration is now! Prices increase January 10th. This year's Convocation's Keynote Speaker is the Rev. Kit Carlson, who will be discussing her book Speaking Our Faith. The time to speak, to share our faith, is now. The Rev. Kit Carlson offers a road map for those who want to learn to speak about the faith that lives within them. Kit will help us put words to our own experiences of God and our personal beliefs, and begin to have compassionate, caring conversations with other people about spirituality, belief, and Jesus Christ. All adult registrants will receive a copy of Kit's individual and small group guide to her new book Speaking our Faith.

The Good Book Club- Epiphany 2019

The Good Book Club is an invitation to all Episcopalians to join in reading Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans during Epiphany 2019. Episcopalians will start reading Romans on January 7, 2019 and read a section every day (except Sundays) through the Epiphany season. Forward Movement has divided Romans into 50 daily readings, beginning on Monday, January 7, and concluding on Shrove Tuesday, March 5. Each day, participants are invited to read, reflect, and pray upon a few verses of Romans. On Sundays, we encourage participants to take a break from Romans and listen and respond to the lectionary readings at their local churches. Click here to view the readings or download a PDF.

Join others in our denomination, including our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, as we journey through this text together!

Next to New Update

Next to New would like to offer a special thank you to the generous volunteers who made it out to our MLK Day #dayofservice! We were blessed with a dozen volunteers who helped reorganize and clean up around the shop and in our store rooms!

Sale of the Week

Half price on all sporting goods and athletic tops, bottoms and shoes in honor of Super Bowl LII!

Next to New Donation Requests for February & March

Next to New has been truly blessed with donations from our congregation and surrounding community over the past 3 months, which has led to a surplus of many items in our store rooms. For the months of February and March, NTN will only be accepting donations of winter coats, boots, hats, gloves and men's pants. All other donations left in our bins will be forwarded on to Easterseals of Northern Ohio. We are so grateful to all of you who have shared your generosity with NTN and Trinity!

Meet the High School Choral Scholar: Isaac Slater

Isaac Slater is in the ninth grade at Toledo School for the Arts. He is very excited to perform in the choir at Trinity Episcopal Church. His interests include jazz, singing, and theater. Some of his favorite roles for the theater have been Danny in Grease, Tevye in Fiddler on the Roof, and Orsino in Twelfth Night. His most recent stage recognition was in TSA's Catch Me if you Can. Isaac would like to thank Mrs. Dauel for recommending him to sing at Trinity.

Food For Thought

EXCITING NEWS: The Food For Thought team is proud and excited to welcome Dennis Westlake as our new Executive Director! We had many kind and qualified candidates. Dennis' years of experience serving communities in Toledo and around the world really set him apart. He embodies the heart of our mission and we can't wait to get to work.

"It is a sincere privilege to greet you for the first time as the new Executive Director for Food For Thought. As we move forward together, may we all be ever mindful of our ongoing responsibility to value those around us, break down the walls of isolation, build community and share our resources with those in need!" -Dennis Westlake

CRU Event: Celebration of Absalom Jones

Sunday February 17, 4:00pm

The 2019 Absalom Jones Celebration will be held on Sunday, February 17 at 4:00 p.m. at Christ Church, Shaker Heights. This is a diocesan-wide event and all are welcome to attend. The Rev. Sharon Williams will be the preacher and the Rt. Rev. Arthur B. Williams, Jr. will be the celebrant.

The offerings from the service will go to support the two remaining Episcopal Historically Black Colleges and University (HBCUs): St. Augustine's University in Raleigh, NC, and Voorhees College in Denmark, SC.

The Celebration commemorates the life and witness of Absalom Jones, the first African American priest in the Episcopal Church, who gained his freedom in the post-Revolutionary War era. Jones contributed greatly to one of the first large free black communities in the United States.
