TRINITY VOICES

Grateful...to be in Community (by Bob Meeker, vestry member)

The Bishop's Bike Ride trained me to appreciate community in a new way. We were a rolling church, gathering ideas, support, sustenance and friendship from all we met. We grew to be like family during home stays on our travels between northern Ohio parishes. We pedaled, laughed, strained, relaxed and exulted over those 250 miles. There [...]

What Trinity Means to Me (by Amy Saylor, Trinity Seminarian)

My faith in God wasn't waning, but faith in the church definitely was when my husband and I walked through the doors of Trinity. I was tired of churches turning the gospel into a political platform, an excuse to discriminate, and an opportunity for greed and materialism. I was hungry for a church that preached
