Personal and Family Retreats

Bellwether Farm is beginning to provide limited overnight accommodations. Personal and Family Retreats are a safe way to provide individuals, couples, and families an opportunity to spend the weekend at Bellwether on October 9-11, October 16-18, and October 23-25.

These self-led retreats begin at dinner on Friday night and end Sunday morning with breakfast and a farmer's market. The package includes two dinners, two breakfasts, one lunch, and room accommodations. All meals are farm-to-table and locally sourced, allowing guests to experience the creative collaboration of Chef Lonny and Farmer Kyle in every meal. Guests also have the option to reserve one of five common rooms for additional space for gathering - perfect for reading and games. Each includes a coffee maker, mini-fridge, couches, chairs, and a table. Fishing poles can be reserved for $5 per family (live bait included!), as well as campfire pits free of charge.

Guests will have the option to volunteer on the farm Saturday morning with Farmer Kyle. Outside of farm intentional reflection and response to what it means to be a community of faith supporting the ministry we share.

Each fall we boldly talk about money and its power and promise as we plan for another exciting year ahead. You are an invaluable part of this process – so welcome.

Buy 1 Give 1 Turkey Project

Bellwether Farm is raising turkeys this season, caring for them and giving them access to all the things they love: sunshine, pasture, and all kinds of bugs. We expect to have a limited number available by Thanksgiving and will be selling them as part of our 2020 farm-to-parish COVID-19 response initiative, Feeding the Beloved Community. Since May, we have been able to donate produce and pork to five parochial hot meal programs, and are excited to have the opportunity of adding turkeys during the holiday season. Here's how it works: A contribution of $100 ($50 of which is tax-deductible) will cover two turkeys - one to enjoy with your friends and family and one to be enjoyed in the hot meal programs we are supporting. unrest, political polarization, where can we find spiritual ground? The answer of course is the most simple: Jesus Christ. Celebrating Christmas 2020 and the birth of Jesus will be full of all sorts of grief. We are grieving [...]

Bell Tolling for COVID Victims

All month long we have been tolling our bells at 5pm to honor and mourn the nearly 250,000 lives lost to coronavirus in the United States. On this final Friday of the month, October 30, we will Live-stream the tolling of the bells on Facebook, and Lisa will offer a time of prayer before and [...]

"Me and White Supremacy"

Lisa is making the commitment to spend Oct. & Nov. working through Layla Saad's 28-Day Challenge called "Me and White Supremacy." She invites YOU to do the same, individually, and then gather in December for an opportunity to discuss and reflect on the experience.

Trinity's Daily Bread

As a community of faith, we are called to love and be loved; to serve and be served, to give and to receive. In short, we don't want anyone to "fall behind or drop out." In this season of connecting in new ways, we are introducing Trinity's Daily Bread.
