A Message from the Bishop

To that end, all congregations will suspend in-person worship by Sunday, December 13, if they have not done so already, and return to worshipping by online services only on that day. This will continue until further notice, certainly through the end of the month and very likely into the new year. As well, beginning no later than December 13, all other in-person gathering for purposes of formation, governance, and outreach will be suspended, save for feeding, clothing, and recovery ministries.

Virtual Book Club

Becky Koskinen and Kyle Grefe invite you to be part of a Trinity virtual book club. We will be selecting books that you wouldn't necessarily find in a religious bookstore ; rather, we'd like book suggestions in which we can explore "God moments" in the book. Currently we are looking at fiction, but that can change if the group so chooses.
