CURATE'S CORNER

Opening Our Souls

My beloved friends, Since joining Trinity, I have found myself reflecting quite a bit on the way of love. While Lisa's current sermon series focuses on each stop along the way – turn, learn, pray, worship, bless, go, and rest – I am sitting deeply simply with the word love. Many of us often hear that following the way of love means following Jesus. And the deeper I sank into the word love, the more I was drawn into Jesus' own words. One of my favorite things [...]

STAY INFORMED

Jonathan Daniels Pilgrimage

You are invited to participate in the virtual celebration of Jonathan Daniels to be held on his feast day of Saturday,

August 14 at 11 am CDT. Jonathan Daniels was an Episcopal seminarian who was killed in Haynesville, Alabama while advocating for racial justice during the civil rights movement. Every year, the Dioceses of Alabama and the Central Gulf Coast hold a pilgrimage commemorating Jonathan Daniels and the Martyrs of Alabama in Haynesville. Due to the pandemic, the event will be held virtually. You can learn more about the pilgrimage and how to attend this year's event here: <https://dioala.org/jonathandaniels>

Wednesday Noonday Prayer

Our new Curate, Megan Allen, will be offering Noonday prayers on Wednesdays. We ask that you bring a lunch, join Megan for this short service from our Book of Common Prayer and then have a chance to talk and eat lunch with her. We will gather at 12noon in the sanctuary. Then we will return to our midweek Eucharist in September.

Next To New Shop Update

On your next trip downtown, stop into Next To New, Trinity's beloved thrift shop. We are open

At 11:00am every Sunday, following our online worship service, we will gather for a 30-minute virtual Coffee and Conversation time via Zoom. Click here for the Meeting ID and tune into worship on Sunday- Lisa will share the meeting Password during her announcements.

All-Parish Picnic, July 25

1:00-3:00PM at Levis Square We have reserved the newly renovated Levis Square one block away from Trinity. Bring your own picnics and blankets (they also have seating available). We will order lunches for our

Toledo Streets vendors and invite them to join us for fun and fellowship! We'll have live music and enjoy our time together. All [...]

Trinity Book Club

Trinity's book club will meet again on Sunday, July 25th, 6:30-8:00pm. This month we will try a hybrid model, gathering in-person, for those who are able, and through Zoom. We will discuss our next featured book, Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi. Click the image to learn how to join the Trinity Book Club. If you've read the book and need this month's meeting information, email Lynzi in the office.

Moving Inward: Exploring Prayer as Physical Practice

Emily Olson will wrap up another season of prayer exploration, on Wednesday, July 28th, from 7:00-8:00 pm. Whether you've attended a gathering in past or not, please consider joining us.

This is a hybrid opportunity, allowing you the choice to join us in-person or on Zoom. Movement will be accessible to all body types and abilities (ages 16+)! Click within for information on parking and building on Thursdays from 10:00am-3:00pm. Next To New is NOT accepting any donations at this time. Please click within to see alternative locations that would love your donations [...]

Trinity's Daily Bread

As a community of faith, we are called to love and be loved; to serve and be served, to give and to receive. In short, we don't want anyone to "fall behind or drop out." In this season of connecting in new ways, we are introducing Trinity's Daily Bread. [...]

The Way of Love Book Group

We are continuing our Way of Love Book Group, to coincide with Lisa's summer sermon series on the Way of Love. We will be meeting Thursdays from 7:00-8:30 pm, June 17 - August 5 on Zoom. Each Sunday, Lisa will preach on one of the facets of the Way of Love, and we will discuss the corresponding chapter the following Thursday. Whether you have attended our book group before or not, all are welcome to join. Books are still available in the Trinity office.

Pop Up Dinners

Trinity Pop-Up Dinners will return this summer. Pop Up Dinners are a wonderful opportunity for parishioners to get to know one another better outside of the worship setting! Hosts are diligently planning safe opportunities to gather. We look forward to taking this next step to sharing a meal together.

DIOCESE OF OHIO

Celtic Retreat at Bellwether Farm

Bellwether Farm will host a Celtic retreat, "Exploring our Anglican Roots through Celtic Spirituality," on August 2-4. The retreat will venture into Celtic spirituality and the experience of God in all creation and how the life of the Celtic peoples became the roots of Anglican spirituality. We will explore Celtic prayer and Soul Friendship and close by looking for the next step of our journeys through the Celtic idea of Peregrinatio. There will be times of prayer throughout the day, plus we will discover what goes into preparing farm-to-table meals and eating them, acknowledging that eating is also part of a life of prayer. Monday we will gather before dinner and we will end Wednesday morning after worshipping together. The retreat will be $270 for one person or $380 for two. Registration is required by July 23.

Peacebuilding Series

The Episcopal Peace Fellowship is launching an online Peacebuilding Series on August 1. Presenters include the Rev. Rosalind Hughes, Bishop Beckwith, and more.
