CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Celebrating Black Voices In The Episcopal Church Monday, February 28, 2022 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM ET

In celebration of Black History Month, we invite you to join us for an honest conversation with five Black leaders who serve The Episcopal Church. Collectively, their service to the Church spans more than 150 years and each of them continues to serve in ways that make a difference.

Hosted by the Church Pension Group's (CPG) People of African Descent affinity group, we will explore the panel's experiences and thoughts around Becoming Beloved Community; examine themes around social justice, diversity, equity, and inclusion; and discuss the challenges and opportunities they see in a predominantly white Church. Register here!
