Toledo Streets Newspaper Board Meeting Update

New executive director, Jodi Jankowski is adjusting well to the culture and flow at TSN. She has recently been active in applying for grants on behalf of TSN.

Ben Stalets (the new vendor manager) and Jodi have been brainstorming some creative ideas for vendor programming including: incentive programs for top sellers and additional ways to support them.

All things considered - coming out of a pandemic, sudden leadership changes, and opening in a new location - the paper is doing well!

Equality Seder

Equality Toledo and the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo's Jewish Community Relations Council invite you to attend our Equality Seder on Thursday, April 7th from 7:00-9:00 m at Handmade Toledo (1717 Adams Street).

A time to celebrate, reflect, and come together Join Equality Toledo and the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo's Jewish Community Relations Council for an evening celebrating our collective liberation. The Passover seder retells the story of the liberation of the Jewish people from slavery in Egypt. This Equality Seder will follow the customs and order of a traditional Passover seder and will focus on chronicling our collective liberation as LGBTQ+ people, as Jews, as LGBTQ+ Jews, and others. We come together to commemorate our emancipation from oppression, to celebrate the freedoms that have been achieved, and to explore freedoms not yet gained, remembering that none of us are free until all of us are free. This event is free and open to all, regardless of faith, sexual orientation and gender identity. Light vegetarian snacks and drinks will be served. RSVP required; please RSVP by Monday, April 4.
