LISA'S BLOG

Community First, Music Second

Beloved Friends, I am delighted to share that from Friday June 23 through Friday July 14, I am turning this blog spot over to our Director of Music and the Arts, Chelsie Cree to share a little bit about the growing "soundtrack" and music ministry at Trinity. As we head into these summer months and afford the choir and section leaders a well-deserved time of sabbath, I thought this might be a good time to invite Chelsie into this space to share a little bit about this vibrant ministry. Please welcome our much beloved Chelsie Cree...

Do Something About Gun Violence

The Diocese of Ohio will host three 60-minute Zoom conversations about how you can actively respond to this epidemic of gun violence in our country. The first conversation will be held on Wednesday, June 8 at 7:00 p.m. This meeting will offer the opportunity to discuss what can we do in our close personal lives? What can we do within ourselves, as well as our interactions with families, friends, neighbors, and coworkers? The second conversation will be held on Wednesday, June 22 at 7:00 p.m. and will focus on what to do in our local congregations. This conversation will include participants from across Province V. The third conversation will be on Wednesday, June 29 at 7:00 p.m. and will focus on what can be done in support of community and political initiatives. More information is available. While this event is free, registration is required. And, as a way to begin, all are invited to take part in a Guns to Gardens: National Buyback Day event hosted by our own Church of the Epiphany in Euclid on Saturday, June 11.
