COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your beloved child revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

TRINITY KIDS INVITATION (Please be seated.)

THE FIRST LESSON

EXODUS 24:12-18

Reader A reading from the Book of Exodus.

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

People Thanks be to God.

The verses will be chanted by the choir. All are invited to join on the antiphon.

ANTIPHON:

- A 1 God reigns; let the people tremble; *
God is enthroned upon the cherubim; Let the earth shake.
- A 2 God is great in Zion *
And is high above all peoples.
- B 3 Let them confess God's Name, which is great and awesome; *
God is the Holy One. [ANT.]
- A 4 "O mighty Ruler, lover of justice, you have established equity; *
You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."
- B 5 We proclaim your greatness, O God, and fall down before your footstool; *
You are the Holy One. [ANT.]
- A 6 Moses and Aaron among your priests,
And Samuel among those who call upon your Name, *
They called upon you, and you answered them.
- B 7 You spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
They kept the testimonies and the decree that you gave them. [ANT.]
- A 8 "O Holy God, you answered them indeed; *
You were a God that forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds."
- B 9 Proclaim the greatness of our God, and worship on God's holy hill, *
For our God is the Holy One. [ANT.]

Reader A reading from the second letter to Peter.

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

sequence Hymn (Please rise.)

Lead me, Lord

LEVAS #251

Sung twice.

Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy right - cous - ness,

Make thy way plain be - fore my face. A - men.

Words: Psalm 5:8, 4:8. Music: Samuel S. Wesley (1861-1935).

Deacon        The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People*        Glory to you, O Christ.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Deacon        The Gospel of Christ.

People*        Praise to you, O Christ.

sermon

The Rev. Jon M. Richardson

THE NICENE CREED (Please rise.)

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

*compiled by Trinity Episcopal Church
Union of Black Episcopalians publication "Celebrating a Season of Black Saints."
Lesser Feasts and Fasts, 2022*

Intercessor This Black History Month, our prayers are inspired by saints of the church who share the experience of the African diaspora. May their stories, teachings, and examples inspire in us a deep conviction to fight against racism, injustice, prejudice, and the systems that perpetuate them.

Creator, inspire in us the unwavering, persistent faith of your servant Absalom Jones. No matter how long it takes, or how many obstacles stand before us, the work we are called to do requires sacred stubbornness. May we use it for holiness. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, inspire in us the bold leadership of your servant Bishop Barbara Harris. May we be faithful shepherds, wise teachers, courageous prophets, and guardians of the faith, working to proclaim the Good News, and despite every societal barrier and glass ceiling that could hold us back, inspire good work for generations to come. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, inspire in us the grace and courage to discern and speak the truth like your servant Thurgood Marshall. Grant that, following his example, we may follow your call to justice, wherever it may lead. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, inspire in us the steadfast courage and authenticity of your servant Pauli Murray. Unshackle us from the chains of prejudice and fear. Let us see, as she did, the interconnectedness of minority rights movements and the importance of our work together. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, inspire in us the call to give hope to those in need like your servants Peter Williams Cassey and Anna Besant Cassey, who, in the face of slavery and discrimination, sought to give the blessings of education and a spiritual haven for those pushed to the margins. May we strive in our own lives to be fearless in the face of injustice and to work for blessings that will touch those whom the world does not count of value. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, inspire in us an advocate's heart, like your servant Anna Julia Haywood Cooper. Enlighten us more and more through the discipline of learning, deepen our commitment to the education of all your children. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, inspire in us your truth through the gift of speech like your servant Frederick Douglass. His impassioned and reasonable speech moved the hearts of people to a deeper obedience to the way of Christ: Strengthen us also to speak on behalf of those in captivity and tribulation. God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor For the people lost too soon, especially those lost because of violence, oppression, and ignorance in the medical system. For all those saints, who, through the anonymity of marginalization, we will never know. Together, we mourn their loss.
A moment of silence is held.
God of the ages,

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Intercessor Creator, we are surrounded by your cloud of witnesses. Let the works of your servants inspire in your people persistence, leadership, discernment, advocacy, hopefulness, truth-speaking, courage and authenticity to continue to bring your vision of justice and peace to your dominion here on earth. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider      The peace of Christ be always with you.
People        And also with you.

PRESENTATION HYMN (Please stand.)

The Hymnal 1982 #124

A musical score for a hymn, featuring a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the notes. The score is divided into three systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are: "To God the Fa - ther, heaven - ly Light, to Christ, re - vealed in earth - ly night, to God the Ho - ly Ghost we raise our e - qual and un - ceas - ing praise." The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a steady rhythm.

To God the Fa - ther, heaven - ly Light, to Christ, re - vealed in earth - ly night, to God the Ho - ly Ghost we raise our e - qual and un - ceas - ing praise.

✠ THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE ✠

Eucharistic Prayer

Eucharistic Prayer A (Expansive Language Version)

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to Christ our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Savior.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy

LEVAS #255

The musical score for the Sanctus is presented in three systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano accompaniment staff. The lyrics are as follows:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly ho - ly Lord God of hosts.

Heav - en and earth are filled with your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, of the Lord.

Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est

Music: Grayson Warren Brown (b. 1948), A Mass for a Soulful People. Copyright © 1979 North American Liturgy Resources, 10802 N. 23rd Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85029. All Rights Reserved.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all. Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night before being handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and after giving thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and after giving thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Memorial Acclamation

LEVAS #258

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

LEVAS #271

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world:
grant us peace.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Receive this gift in remembrance that Christ lived, died, and rose for you, and feed in him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The priest will invite everyone to come forward for communion. The ushers will direct you when it is time. At Trinity we offer both fresh bread and a gluten free option. In solidarity with our siblings in recovery, we offer only non-alcoholic wine. All are welcome.

DISMISSAL

Deacon
People

Go in peace to love and serve our loving, liberating, and life-giving God.
Thanks be to God!

Black Saints who are celebrated in our prayers – A Quick Key

The Rev. Absalom Jones was the first black priest of the Episcopal Church. Born a slave, worked to buy his freedom and then being granted it, Jones was a founder of the Free African Society and founded the African Episcopal Church of St. Thomas. Known as “the Black Bishop of the Episcopal Church,” Jones was an engaging preacher who worked tirelessly to denounce slavery and lift the moral spirit of the black community.

The Rt. Rev. Barbara Harris, in addition to leading from her perspective as an African American, was the first woman ordained a Bishop in the Anglican Communion. More than a trailblazer for racial and women’s rights in the church, she was widely admired as a prophet, boldly preaching love, welcome, and acceptance for all marginalized people - and specifically for the LGBTQIA+ community.

Thurgood Marshall was the first African American Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Initially denied admission to law school because of segregation policies, Marshall went on not only to become a successful lawyer, but to argue and win 29 of 32 cases before the Supreme Court, including Brown vs. Board of Education of Topeka. Marshall held the position of Associate Justice for 24 years, and in his time, made many forward-moving decisions on civil rights.

The Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray was a civil rights activist and the first African American woman ordained a priest in the Episcopal Church. After being denied admission to law school for her race and then denied admission to graduate school for her gender, Pauli Murray wrote State’s Laws on Race and Color, which is the foundational document for the United States Supreme Court’s case Brown v. Board of Education, which abolished segregation in schools. A member of the LGBTQIA+ community, women’s rights activist, and author, Murray believed that women’s rights and civil rights were deeply intertwined.

Peter Williams Cassey (deacon) and his wife Anna Besant Cassey were deeply committed activists. Both from prominent and educated families on the East Coast, they founded St Philip’s Mission for Colored People and opened St. Philip’s Academy in San Jose, California. The primary mission was education, and it welcomed all students of color, who were normally unable to attend school due to their race. Their work led to Peter being ordained as a deacon, and their mission grew to a point where it split into two congregations: the African American Church of St. Cyprian and Christ Nippon Sei Ko Kai (Japanese American Episcopal Church). Though many bishops supported it, Peter was never ordained a priest because of the racism of the clergy in his standing committees.

Anna Julia Haywood Cooper was a prominent educator and advocate, especially for African American women. She fought tirelessly for equal education and organized the Colored Women’s League and the first Colored Settlement House in Washington, D.C. She also pressed for better support from the Episcopal Church in her book A View from the South. She became the fourth African American woman awarded a doctorate and served as President of Frelinghuysen University in Washington, D.C.

Frederick Douglass was an outstanding orator who spoke out against slavery and for racial integration. Born a slave, Douglass learned to read in secret. After escaping, he converted to Christianity and was sent on many speaking tours in both America and Europe, sponsored by the American Anti-Slavery Society. He became so well-known that during a tour in Europe, his friends raised enough money to buy his freedom so he could return home safely. He openly questioned any church that did not disassociate itself from slavery.
