The First Lesson

Isaiah 55:1-5

Reader A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145: 8-9, 15-22

Refrain taken from Hal Hopson's "The People's Psalter"

All are invited to chant the psalm, led by the Trinity Summer Choir.

Text from the St. Helena Psalter

8 You are gracious and full of compassion, * slow to anger and of great kindness.

9 You are loving to everyone * and your compassion is over all your works. - Refrain

15 You uphold all those who fall; *
You lift up those who are bowed down.

16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O God, *
and you give them their food in due season. - Refrain

17 You open wide your hand * and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

18 You are righteous in all your ways * and loving in all your works. - Refrain

19 You are near to those who call upon you, * to all who call upon you faithfully.

20 You fulfill the desire of those who fear you; *
you hear their cry and help them. - Refrain

21 You preserves all those who love you, * but destroy all the wicked.

22 My mouth shall speak your praise, O God; *
let all flesh bless your holy Name for ever and ever. - Refrain

The Second Reading

Romans 9:1-5

Reader A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans.

I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit—I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Over My Head

arr. The Podd Brothers

Over my head I hear singing everywhere
There must be a joy There must be a joy
There must be a joy somewhere!

The Gospel

Matthew 14:13-21

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, O Christ.

Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Presider The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon
The Nicene Creed

The Rev. Jon M. Richardson

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

the Prayers of the People

All are invited to respond in bolded text. "You Welcomed Us" from The Episcopal Diocese of Virginia

Leader Welcoming God, in our hunger, you feed us. In our thirst, you give us something to drink. When we saw ourselves as strangers, you welcomed us home in you. You called us out of our estrangement and made us one in you. As you have done to us, you call us to do for our siblings who hunger, thirst, and feel alone. Guide our bishops, priests, and all other ministers as they lead your church. Guide and strengthen us to be at work in the world you so love. In your Church, you welcomed us.

Leader Welcoming God, we lift up our nation to you, our disparate peoples spanning this vast land from sea to sea. Where we see division and competing desires, you call us to see with your eyes and be unified. Make us aware of those that have less and spur in us to give from the abundance that you have given us. We pray for our leaders, and this season of decision for the direction this nation, for our president, the congress, and all our elected officials as they shape policies and set the tone for our communities. Align our choices with your will for the world you still are calling into being. In the work for a better nation, you welcomed us.

Leader Welcoming God, we see images of so much need, of so much destruction, of a ravaged environment and we feel hopeless. Inspire us to welcome and make real a new and better world. In our small choices we multiply in our common mission. Transform us to be agents of your spirit, working towards reconciliation and wholeness wherever we may go. In our hurting world, you welcomed us.

Leader Welcoming God, we lift up those in our immediate circles, our families and friends, those known to us and to you. We pray for them.

(You are invited to share your prayers aloud or in silence.)

Thank you for hearing us and helping us to share your love.
In our pain and worry, you welcomed us.

Leader Welcoming God, into your loving hands we commend those who have died, and have been welcomed home in you eternally.

(You are invited to share your prayers aloud or in silence.)

Your love opens doors, dispels darkness, and shows itself to be never ending, even through death. We abide in that hope, and one day, we trust, we will be welcomed forever in you. Even at the end and our beginning in you, you welcome us.

Presider God who welcomes and calls us to welcome, hear the prayers of your people. Drive from us any feelings of separation and into our belovedness. Inspire us to be at work in your world, moving it daily to its fullness in you. Thank you for holding the door and bringing us in. Amen

Confession and Absolution

Enriching Our Worship 1

Presider Let us confess our sins to God.

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

Enriching Our Worship Prayer 3

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to Christ our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

The Presider continues

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us. We thank you that on the night before dying for us Jesus took bread, and after giving thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise. Blessed are you now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Beautiful City

offered by Grace Wipfli,

*Out of the ruins and rubble
Out of the smoke
Out of our night of struggle
Can we see a ray of hope?
One pale thin ray Reaching for the day*

A beautiful city
Yes we can
Yes we can
We can build
A beautiful city
Not a city of angels
But we can build a city of man*

*We may not reach the ending
But we can start
Slowly but truly mending
Brick by brick
Heart by heart
Now maybe now
We start learning how*

*When your trust
Is all but shattered
When your faith
Is all but killed
You can give up*
